Sixty-Six First Dates: Every Day Offers a New Chance to Fall in Love with God Gretchyn Quernemoen Falling in love usually begins with a first date, followed by a second, and continuing on in that way until two people are virtually inseparable. Falling in love with God happens much the same way. It starts with a first date; from there, the more you learn about God, the more you want to know about Him. When you dig into His Word, you soon discover He is a God worth knowing on a personal level. Research shows it takes the average person sixty-six days to create a habit. If you can do something for sixty-six days, you can do it for a year, two years, or ninety-two years. In "Sixty-Six First Dates: Every Day Offers a New Chance to Fall in Love with God," author Gretchyn Quernemoen provides you with tools necessary to make daily time with God a habit. You will experience God through reading Scripture passages, learn how to talk to Him through scripted prayers, and apply what you have learned in a practical way. This sixty-six-day devotional guide seeks to help you discover the joy, humor, and strength God intends for your daily life. Spending time with God every day will become a habit you'll never want to break.
