Patience Worth: The Sorry Tale: A story of the time of Christ (Jesus Book 3) The Heritage eBook Collection
A story of the time of Christ, filled with action. It brings into close view the historical characters of Tiberius, the Herods, Pilate, Peter, and particularly and dominantly, Jesus Christ.

"This book increases the marvel of the first two books. A wonderful, a beautiful and a noble book."—New York Times Book Review.

"As dramatic as 'Ben Hur.' There is poetic imagination."—Philadelphia Ledger.

"The most remarkable piece of literature I have ever read."— William M. Reedy in Reedy's Mirror.

"Sensitive, witty, keenly metaphysical. Whoever or whatever she is, she meets the test that human beings meet"—Francis Hackett in The New Republic.

"A mind, whosever it may be, that has retained abundant vigor, distinction and individual savor."—Lawrence Gilmam in The North American Review.

"Pages could be filled easily and we think entertainingly with report of the quaint curiosities of speech in the text. There is much of fine old English, the English that people of culture profess to disdain. There are paragraphs of power and paragraphs of history." — New York Sun.

"You will wonder at the sheer beauty of the story's thought and diction. You will be convinced that here is a tale from the pen of a master word builder." — Chicago Evening Mail.

"One cannot escape the realization that here is a masterpiece. Can it be that this is some Bronte from Spirit land who has found a tiny aperture through the bleak wall of death to which she has pressed her lips." — Los Angeles Times.
