He had a love of life that she found invigorating. He was handsome, charming, kind, and a returned missionary from a good family. When Robb Larksley proposed to Kim, she saw in him everything she wanted. Eight years later, when Robb is inactive, unemployed, and drifting away, Kim finds her life crumbling around her. She must find strength before she and her son are buried in the debris of the broken world she once called "home." Through a captivating, sincere story, Earning Eternity tells of triumph over the problems that plague the world today. It offers hope to those who might not know where to find it. Josi Kilpack beautifully illustrates that the love and light of God can break through any barrier of bleak darkness.
