The Earliest Crawfords of Scotland G. Ian Crawford
This is the story of the earliest members of the ancient Scottish family of Crawford, from about 1150 to 1400. The traditional family legends don't always stand up well when compared to contemporary historical sources, but the old tales are repeated over and over nonetheless. Did Sir Gregan Crawford really save King David I from a charging stag? Were the Crawfords of Loudon the original hereditary sheriffs of Ayr? Was the mother of the hero William Wallace's a Crawford? Was Reginald Crawford of Crosbie a Scottish patriot brutally executed by the English? Most Crawfords who have already begun to ask such questions will likely be disappointed by most of the answers to these questions, but I invite you anyway to consider what history has to tell us about this noble family.
