Whenever students pick up a newsletter on wellness, they read health articles in magazines, or watch current health documentaries on television, they often see the mind-body connection discussed. As we move into the 21st century there is a real trend toward healing and staying well through behaviors. Anger, hostility, stress, loneliness, and self-esteem are just a few of the things that affect health. This text is ideal for professors who discuss any of these concepts with their students. This text covers the mind-body connection and self-responsibility.
