Here and Now T. Renee Fike
Growing up infatuated with the same guy your friend likes is rough.

Being a true friend, Baylee has always put her friends first and her wants and needs last.
When she leaves for college, with her best friend and the guy of her dreams, she realizes that things aren't as easy as they seem.

Emotionally struggling with her feelings, she feels torn watching as her best friend begins to try and date the hot and sexy Evan Scott. Turning her focus on school, Baylee becomes close with her outgoing and witty roommate. Dani doesn't care about what other people think; instead she does what she wants and goes after what she feels she deserves.

When a tragedy occurs, lives are turned upside down, people are thrown together and people show their true colors as the truth is unveiled.

Are your friends really your friends? Are they using you for their own personal needs?

Can Baylee find her happily ever after by living in the here and now? Will she always remain in the shadow of others?
