It would have been a wonderful wedding for Pablo and Wendy. But for two years, the strings of romance that hooked them both together had faded, all because of Michael, the strongest and most charming employee at Pablo’s Enterprise who proved to be better in bed than Wendy could ever wish to resist. The strong friendly ties that could be maintained between both men turned to a rather licentious con for Pablo’s wealth. He masked his health condition and faked medical reports with a deadly infection, knowing his wife and confidant had turned against him. Having a short time to live, he wouldn’t wish to end up in peril, as he could pretend his death came earlier than proposed by his doctor.

His silence and observation were keen to understanding what was schemed in malice. His cheating wife and his confidant were plotting to make away with over forty million worth of his assets and ready cash. Nevertheless, Pablo's plan to pretend to die sooner than the doctors had proposed continued, all for the sake of undoing them with their malicious con. Michael and Wendy were faced with the biggest question of their licentious fate. Is he going to die and leave his estate to Wendy? On the other hand, will he opt for the euthanasia by his doctors so that they have no blood on their hands over his death? It was just a matter of time for what plans Pablo had for such extreme deceit by his very own love... his wife.
