Cuyahoga Falls: River of Memories Jeri Holland
From the deep, dark wilderness of the Western Reserve, to bustling industrial prospect of the 19th and 20th centuries, to picturesque image of Ohioan life, the history of settlement, village, town and city Cuyahoga Falls is here collected and recounted. Culled from dusty newspaper articles and personal accounts of the men and women who lived history, local historian Jeri Holland weaves you a tale of Natives and settlers, weird folklore and town characters, local landmarks and events both tragic and uplifting. Step back in time, walk the streets you know and see them in a whole new light. Read the names you've seen on signs and buildings and know the people that gave those names meaning. From Cuyahoga Falls: River of Memories will show you what you thought you knew and make it live.
