Ashland, Oregon David Vokac, Joan Vokac
Ashland, Oregon-where the palms meet the pines-may well be the classic prototype for The Great Towns of America. Favorable geography, thoughtful development, and a lot of good fortune combine to make this town an idyllic enclave of culture and recreation amid alpine grandeur. This unique vacation/relocation guide, completely new in 2012, reveals Ashland's top restaurants, attractions, and lodgings; and goes into detail about the town's weather and data pertaining to what it's like to live there. Before you go and while you're there, this guide can provide all the information you will need to make plans and fulfill your dreams about this delightful locale.
