The Practical Guide to 'Streaming' Live TV Channels, Movies & TV Show Box Sets to a Smart TV for free! P. Calder-Marshall, K. Calder-Marshall
Back Cover Publisher Description

The main change in the expected functionality of the traditional television set, or ‘Dumb’ TV, in the last few years is the ability to do rather more than just watch scheduled television programmes. A ‘Smart TV’ is a TV set which has ‘integrated network connectivity’, it can ‘see’ the home network, and through it is connected to the internet.

Note: Should a potential purchaser merely wish to make use of the more limited access to Internet based media content provided by a Smart TV, using the basic features of the given Smart TV and associated software, then this eBook is not a requirement and such potential purchasers are advised that this ebook will be of no interest to them and should not attempt to purchase it.

This eBook makes use of an 'app' to legitimately access public domain content and to content which may, potenially, infringe the rights of other copyright holders, potential purchasers that are particularly concerned about the legitimacy of such an 'app' should not attempt to purchase this eBook.

This eBook addresses the subject, with respect to Smart TVs, as international consumer products and as such this eBook is not manufacturer or country specific, addressing any manufacturer and geographical differences where they are significant.

As useful as a Smart TV may be, it is only as useful, to any individual, as the the digital media content it is able to access. Since Smart TVs provide access to the internet as a whole, it places an an almost infinite choice before the user, such a choice is almost the same as no choice at all, unless that choice is heavly focused, this eBook focuses that choice.

This eBook is concerned with, and provides all, the practical instructions that the reader will need to 'Cast' Internet 'channels', Live Broadcast TV channels, local and international, New & Old Box office Movies and episodes from 534 Original TV Show Complete Season Box Sets, these include Family Guy (12 Seasons), The Simpsons (25 Seasons), Suits (4 Seasons), True Blood (7 Seasons), Game of Thrones (4 Seasons), Orange is the New Black (2 Seasons),

The Walking Dead (4 Seasons), Breaking Bad (5 Seasons), Smallville (10 Seasons), Friends (10 Seasons), How I met Your Mother (9 Seasons), Criminal Minds (9 Seasons), Grey's Anatomy (10 Seasons), House (8 Seasons), 24 (8 Seasons), 2 Broke Girls (3 Seasons), The Wire (5 Seasons), CSI: (14 Seasons), CSI: Miami (10 Seasons) and 515 other Original TV Show Complete season Box Sets using an Android Smart Phone / Tablet on the home network for that ultimate 'Box set Binge Fest!'

This eBook is, at its' core, a graphical instruction manual, it is a 'Practical Guide', it contains only the practical,
'hands-on', information required to add access to Internet 'channels', Live TV Channels, Movies & TV Show Box Sets.

This eBook also demonstrates the 'Streaming' of movies from a 'Cloud' drive, allowing the user to 'stream' them to, a Smart TV when at another location.

In order to ensure the accuracy and quality of the content of its' publications, it is the policy of a2d Studio Products to apply any updates and corrections to it's publications it sees fit at any time after the publication date, purchasers are advised to check periodically for the application of such future updates and corrections to this publication. This eBook was the subject of such updates and corrections on the 27th January 2015.
