Twelve Sermons on Unbelief C. H. Spurgeon
12 SERMONS ON UNBELIEF by Charles H. Spurgeon ... Spurgeon possessed a deep sense of urgency to preach the gospel; he drew on all his powers of eloquence to convince believers to accept Christ without delay. The messages in Twelve Sermons on Unbelief represent the best of Spurgeon's evangelistic appeals. Charles Haddon Spurgeon (1834-1892) was a noted English Baptist minister who preached to throngs of people in the Metropolitan Tabernacle in London, which seated six thousand people. His success and popularity were due in a large measure to his natural gift of oratory and his thoroughly Biblical expository sermons.
