The Epic of America Triangle Books Edition James Truslow Adams
A graphic, comprehensive narrative interpreting the American people, the influences which have shaped their character, the contaminations to which they were exposed, and the spirit which has brought them through crises in the past and must be trusted to preserve them in troubled future. Adams has achieved what every major historian has always hoped to achieve; he's written a history which suppresses the unessential and which brings into clear light the unique facts which have made the story of the Nation distinct from all other histories of other lands.
