What To Do When You're Bored At Home D. L. Haley
You're at home and so bored you just don't know what to do with yourself. Problem solved. With 'What To Do When You're Bored At Home' you now have 100 suggestions to keep you busy, from creating milk art to competitive mooing or something actually useful. If nothing else, reading this book will keep you happily occupied for a while. Author, D. L. Haley has been an independent article writer and ghost writer for several years. As a work-from-home guy he claims he has spent many a time staring at his computer monitor in a state of writer's block and wondering what to do. "Problem is," he says, "when the block hits, you need to jog your brain with something completely different." And so he started looking round the house for things to do. Eventually, that creativity resulted in What To Do When You're Bored At Home, a wacky collection of amusing, thoughtful and downright weird ways to bust boredom.
